Workshop Fee

Building capable, ethical and transformational leadership for the institutions shaping tomorrow.

Leadership that keeps pace with a changing world.

The structured development experience designed for leaders preparing to carry institutional responsibility.

EHELP blends assessment, executive education, peer learning, case studies, simulations and action planning - connecting personal leadership growth to institutional transformation.

FOR INSTITUTIONS

Build leadership succession pipelines. Strengthen governance. Improve resilience, continuity, innovation and sustainable performance.

FOR PARTICIPANTS

Grow strategic leadership, financial leadership, stakeholder management, executive presence, resilience and decision-making skill.

THE LEARNING JOURNEY

01

Leadership Assessment Centre

Competency assessment, leadership readiness assessment and individual development reports.

02

Executive Leadership Workshop

A one-week, 12-module experience delivered through executive lectures, cases, simulations and peer learning.

03

Action & Momentum

Reflective exercises, action planning and a capstone leadership challenge - then ongoing alumni support.

The room where future leadership takes shape.

EHELP is designed for people already contributing at a high level - and preparing to lead at an even higher one.

ACADEMIC LEADERS

Deputy Vice-Chancellors, Deputy Rectors, Deputy Provosts, Provosts, Deans, Academic Directors and other academic leaders.

PROFESSIONAL LEADERS

Administrative and professional directors, Deputy Registrars, Deputy Bursars and senior officers.

SUCCESSION CANDIDATES

Emerging institutional leaders, high-potential officers and leadership succession candidates.
